5. Personal statement (1,000 words, addressing all 7 questions below)
 - a. Why do you want to enter the dietetics profession?

 - c. What are your short-term and long-term goals?

6. Interview (if applicable) - Evaluation of candidates via video or telephone interview. After reviewing your application, you will receive an email with available dates/times for an interview.

Note: Bilingual and bicultural applicants receive additional points on the application screening form in those categories. At Sea Mar, we support the education and employment of dietitians in clinics serving a multicultural population. Therefore, students who have taken Spanish-language classes or possess other second/multi-language skills beneficial to serving our client populations are awarded extra points during the application process. However, Spanish language proficiency is not a requirement for interns. We encourage all students with a strong passion and desire to work in community health to apply, regardless of language skills. Final candidate selection will be based on the qualifications of the entire applicant pool.

Good luck on the internship application process!
